DURABLE

Axle studs are 1 1/4 inches in diameter, and are reversible and interchangeable, which doubles their life.

SIMPLICITY

We can rightfully boast that our rake has fewer parts than any rake on the market. Simplicity of construction and proper material, systematically and symmetrically distributed, mean much to users

OVER 3,000 PRESENT

At Old Settlers Reunion and Picnic at Ruggles Camp Ground on July 4—Great Occasion

If there is any one place within reach of Maysville where one can spend a safe and sane Fourth away from the heat, noise and din of the city it is at the annual Old Settlers' Reunion and picnic. That a larger number are realizing this each year is evidenced by the increased attendance at these annual picnics. Nearly three thousand people traveled the dusty roads last Saturday to be present at this occasion. Not many from Maysville to be sure as the Chattanooga has gotten such a hold on our people that they are loath to leave town while it is in progress. However, a few Maysvillians went to the picnic and it one could hear them talk about the good time they had, especially about the picnic dinner time, you wouldn't wonder at the pleased expression on their faces when they returned. It was a sure enough good picnic. Col. W. H. Thomas, president of the Association had the arrangements well in hand and out things through in fine style. The Evening band in all its glory was there, too. Below is the program about as it was put:

Music—Band.
Trio—"He Leadeth Me"—Messrs. Muse, Litteral and Richardson.
Invocation—Rev. H. D. Cooper.
Trio—"America."

Address of Welcome—President W. H. Thomas.
Reading of minutes of last annual meeting.

Address by Prof. T. J. Currey on "The Home, The School, The Church."

Address on "Temperance"—Rev. W. K. Clements.

Announcements—Rev. J. M. Litteral. Noon Intermission.

Election of officers.
Address by Hon. W. J. Fields.

Address by Hon. R. D. Wilson on the Editor J. C. Newcomb of The Ripley Bee accompanied by his wife and daughter, Miss Louise, were guests of their uncle, Mr. Clarence Mathews on the President—Col. W. H. Thomas.

Vice President—Mason County—Mr. L. M. Lane.
Vice President Fleming County—J. L. Markwell.
Secretary—J. H. Richards.
Treasurer—C. Greely Degman.

The only change in the officers is the election of Mr. Degman as treasurer in place of Mr. Joseph J. Walker, deceased. Mr. Degman had made a very eloquent speech placing in nomination all the old officers for re-election. When nominations for treasurer were called for Mr. Degman was placed in nomination and elected by a unanimous vote.

There were 24 persons over 70 years of age present, three of whom were past 80. There were only five persons present who attended the first reunion twenty six years ago.

Maysvillians in attendance at the big picnic were: Revs. J. M. Litteral, A. F. Feltz, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Lane, Prof. T. J. Currey, Mr. M. A. Wallingford, Mr. Dale Bryant and family, R. K. Muse, Rees Kirk and J. H. Richardson.

The grim reaper has made a rich harvest among the old settlers during the past year as will be seen by the list below which was read out during the program:

Mrs. Ada Cooper, Mrs. Foxworthy, Mrs. Anna Higgins, Mrs. Minnie Saunders, Mrs. Newton C. Rudy, Mrs. Bettie Darnell, Mrs. H. D. Cooper, Mrs. Mahala Dunkle, Mrs. Catherine Applegate, Mrs. Emory Davis, Mrs. Ed Wicoff, C. L. Doyle, Nathan B. Rogers, George W.
